

Ontario
College of Teachers

Ordre des enseignantes et des enseignants
de l'Ontario

Additional Qualification Course Guideline French as a Second Language, Part I

(For teaching in English-language schools only)

Schedule D Teachers' Qualifications Regulation

December 2016

Ce document sera disponible en français sous le titre Ligne directrice du cours menant à la qualification additionnelle : Français langue seconde, 1^{re} partie, décembre 2016.

Additional Qualification Course Guideline French as a Second Language, Part I

1. Introduction

The Schedule D French as a Second Language, Part I Additional Qualification course guideline provides a conceptual framework (Figure 1) for providers and instructors to develop and facilitate the Schedule D French as a Second Language, Part I course. This guideline framework is intended to be a fluid, holistic and integrated representation of key concepts associated with French as a Second Language, Part I.

The Additional Qualification (AQ) guideline: French as a Second Language, Part I is organized using the following conceptual framework:

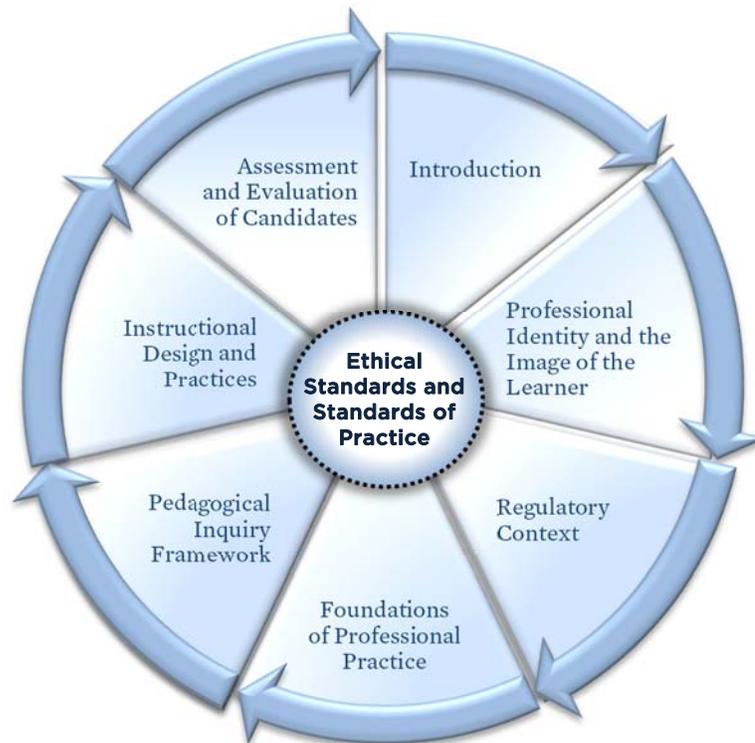

Figure 1: Conceptual Framework

Three-session specialist Additional Qualification courses identified in Schedule D (Teachers' Qualifications Regulation 176/10) are designed for:

- critically exploring and enhancing professional practices, critical pedagogies, knowledge and skills as outlined in the French as a Second Language course (Part I)
- critically designing, applying and facilitating dialogue related to learning opportunities that integrate the professional knowledge, skills and pedagogical stances as outlined in the French as a Second Language course (Part II)
- critically and collaboratively cultivating professional efficacy, emancipatory leadership practices and advancing the scholarship of teaching by fostering cultures of critical reflection and inquiry as outlined in the French as a Second Language course (Specialist).

The Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I employs a critical, pedagogical lens to explore in a holistic and integrated manner theoretical foundations, learning theory, program planning, development and implementation, instructional design and practices, assessment and evaluation, the learning environment, research and ethical considerations related to teaching and learning across the divisions. Through these explorations, candidates strengthen professional efficacy by gaining in-depth knowledge, refining professional judgment and generating new knowledge for practice. The course is specifically designed to support French speaking teachers in enhancing their pedagogical and programming practices as they relate to the delivery of French as a Second Language curriculum.

AQ Course Implementation

Course providers, instructors and developers will use this AQ guideline framework to inform the emphasis given to key guideline concepts in response to candidates' diverse professional contexts, knowledge, skills and understandings.

Critical to the holistic implementation of this course is the modeling of a positive learning environment that reflects care, diversity and equity. This course supports the enhancement of professional knowledge, ethical practice, leadership and ongoing professional learning.

The Ontario College of Teachers recognizes that candidates working in the publicly funded school system, independent/private institutions or First Nations schools will have a need to explore topics and issues of particular relevance to the context in which they work or may work.

Provincial Context

The French language and the English language communities will also need to implement these guidelines to reflect the unique contextual dimensions and needs of each community. Each of these language communities will explore the guideline content from distinct perspectives and areas of emphasis. This flexibility will enable both language communities to implement French as a Second Language, Part I as understood from a variety of contexts.

Course providers, instructors and developers will use this AQ guideline framework to guide and inform areas of identified key guideline concepts in response to the contexts of each course as well as the professional knowledge, skills and understandings of course candidates.

In this document, all references to “candidates” are to teachers enrolled in the Additional Qualification course. References to “students” indicate those enrolled in school programs.

2. Professional Identity and the Image of the Learner

The professional identity of the AQ course instructor and course candidates conveyed in this AQ course guideline reflects the vision of the educator articulated in the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession, the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession.

This vision of the educator (Figure 2) positions professional educators as innovative scholars and practitioners, critical pedagogues who forward social and ecological justice, as well as:

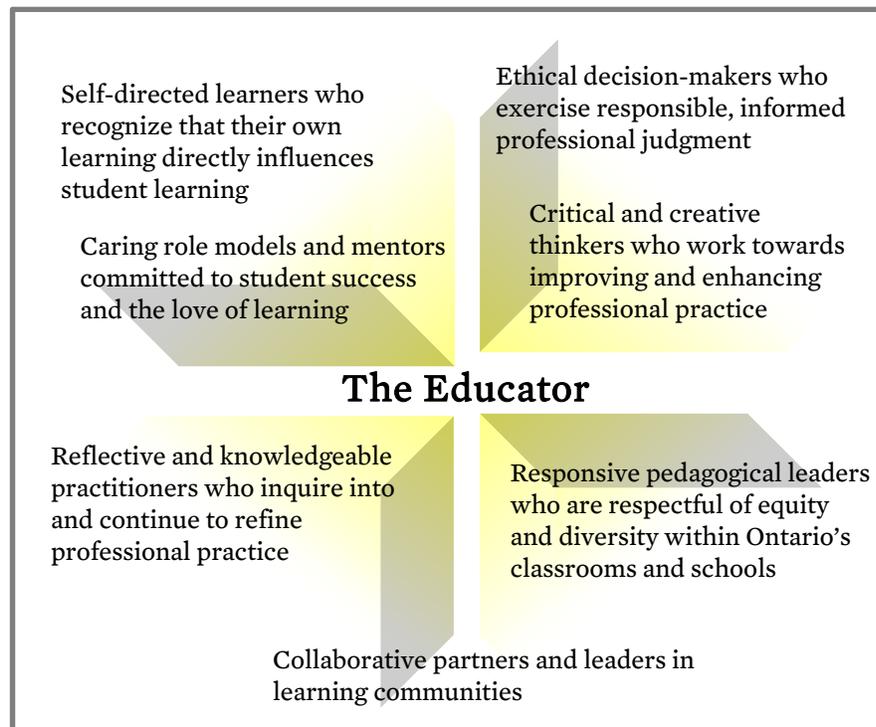

Figure 2: Image of the Educator¹

The image of the student conveyed in this AQ (Figure 3) is of a learner who is empowered, independent, a democratic citizen, knowledgeable, creative, collaborative, a critical thinker, ethical, reflective, accepting, inclusive, courageous, self-efficacious, a problem-solver, and whose voice and sense of efficacy are integral to shaping the teaching and learning process.

¹ Note. From "The Foundations of Professional Practice," by Ontario College of Teachers, 2012, p. 17. Copyright 2012 by Ontario College of Teachers. Reprinted with permission.

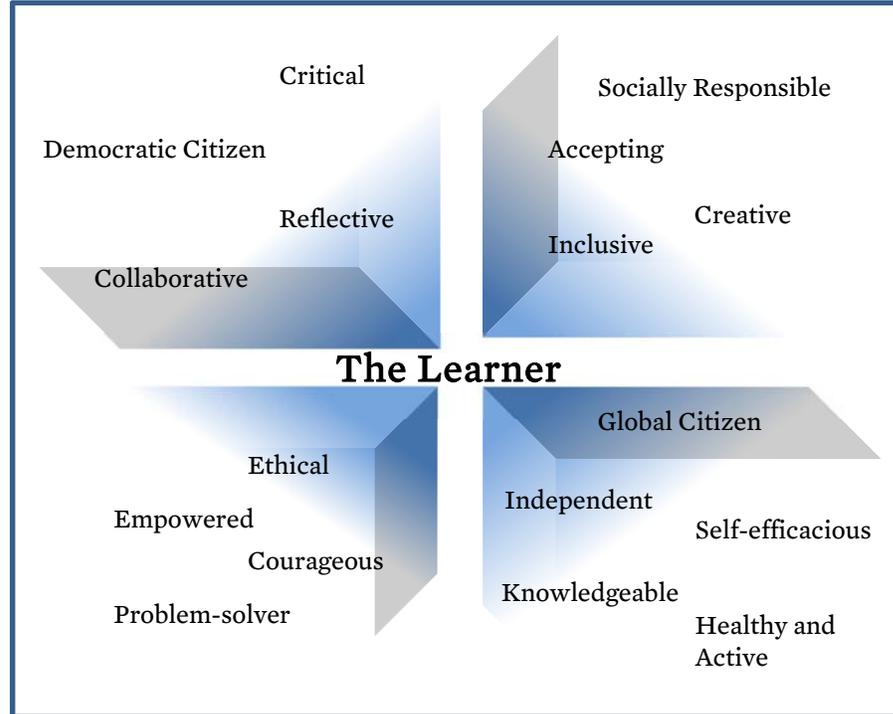

Figure 3: Image of the Learner

3. Regulatory Context

The College is the self-regulating body for the teaching profession in Ontario. The College's responsibility related to courses leading to Additional Qualifications includes the following:

- to establish and enforce professional standards and ethical standards applicable to members of the College.
- to provide for the ongoing education of members of the College.
- to accredit Additional Qualification courses and more specifically,

The program content and expected achievement of persons enrolled in the program match the skills and knowledge reflected in the College's "Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession" and the "Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession" and in the program guidelines issued by the College. (Regulation 347/02, Accreditation of Teacher Education Programs, Part IV, Subsection 24).

Additional Qualifications for teachers are identified in the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation (Regulation 176/10). This regulation includes courses that lead to Additional Qualifications, the Principals' Development Qualification, the Principal's Qualifications, the Primary Division, the Junior Division and the Supervisory Officer's Qualifications. A session of a course leading to an Additional Qualification shall consist of a minimum of 125 hours as approved by the Registrar. Accredited Additional Qualification courses reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession, the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession.

The AQ course developed from this guideline is open to candidates who meet the entry requirements identified in the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation.

Successful completion of the course leading to the Additional Qualification: French as a Second Language, Part I listed in Schedule D of the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation, is recorded on the Certificate of Qualification and Registration.

4. Foundations of Professional Practice

The Foundations of Professional Practice conveys a provincial vision of what it means to be a teacher in Ontario. This vision lies at the core of teacher professionalism. The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession (Appendix 1) are the foundation for the development and implementation of the Additional Qualification course. These nine standards, as principles of professional practice, provide the focus for ongoing professional learning in the Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I. In addition, the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession is underpinned by the standards, articulates the principles on which effective teacher learning is based and acknowledges a range of options that promote continuous professional learning.

The ongoing enhancement of informed professional judgment, which is acquired through the processes of lived experience, inquiry and critical reflection, is central to the embodiment of the standards and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession within this AQ course and professional practice.

The Ethical Standards of the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession serve as guiding frameworks that underpin professional knowledge, skills and experiences that teachers require in order to teach effectively within and contribute to an environment that fosters respect, care, trust and integrity.

Teacher Education Resources

The College has developed resources to support the effective integration of the standards within Additional Qualification courses. These teacher education resources explore the integration of the standards within professional practice through a variety of educative, research and inquiry-based processes. These resources can be found on the College web site:

<http://www.oct.ca/resources/categories/professional-standards-and-designation>.

These teacher education resources support the development of professional knowledge, judgment and efficacy through critical reflective praxis. The lived experiences of Ontario educators are illuminated in these teacher education resources and serve as key supports for AQ courses.

5. Pedagogical Inquiry Framework

The pedagogical inquiry framework (Figure 4) for French as a Second Language, Part I supports a holistic, integrated, experiential and inquiry-based AQ course. This pedagogical inquiry framework supports the professional knowledge, judgment, critical pedagogies and practices of course candidates.

Figure 4: Pedagogical Inquiry Framework for French as a Second Language, Part I

A) The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession:

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession represent a collective vision of professional practice. At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The holistic integration of the standards within all course components supports the embodiment of the collective vision of the teaching profession that guides professional knowledge, learning and practice. The following principles and concepts support this holistic integration within the AQ course:

- understanding and embodying care, trust, respect and integrity
- fostering commitment to students and student learning
- integrating professional knowledge
- enriching and developing professional practice
- supporting leadership in learning communities
- engaging in ongoing professional learning.

Course candidates will continue to critically inquire into professional practices, pedagogies and ethical cultures through professional dialogue, collaborative reflection and the lenses of the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession.

B) Guiding Concepts for Pedagogical Inquiry

The following theoretical concepts are provided to facilitate the holistic design and implementation of this AQ course through pedagogical and professional inquiries.

This Additional Qualification course supports critical reflective inquiry and dialogue informed by the following concepts which will be critically explored through holistic and interrelated processes:

- critically exploring assumptions, beliefs and understandings associated with teaching and learning within the context of this AQ
- critically exploring the professional identity and practices associated with the views of teachers as co-inquirers, teacher scholars and teacher researchers working alongside student researchers in the co-creation of democratic, knowledge-rich learning environments
- critically exploring and interpreting Ontario's curriculum, policies, frameworks, strategies and guidelines

- collaboratively examining and integrating the meaningful and respectful inclusion of First Nations, Métis and Inuit ways of knowing, cultures, histories and perspectives in teaching and learning processes as valid means to understand the world
- critically exploring multiple ways of knowing and being in the community
- applying critical pedagogy as a theoretical foundation for the design, assessment and implementation of practices and/or programs in French as a Second Language, Part I at the local and district level
- critically exploring pedagogical processes and assessment and evaluation practices that link curriculum to student interests, strengths, inquiries, needs, resiliency, well-being and mental health
- critically examining processes, practices and policies to create and sustain holistic learning environments that nurture the identities of students and their intellectual, social, emotional, physical, linguistic, cultural, spiritual and moral development
- critically exploring engagement processes and practices intended to foster collaboration with students, in-school personnel, parents/guardians and the community to support the learning, identity, resiliency and well-being of the school community
- critically exploring and integrating a variety of resources, including technological and communication resources, to enhance professional knowledge in support of student learning, independence, well-being and agency
- critically exploring information and communication technology into teaching practice and into the learning cycle
- critically exploring professional practice through ongoing collaborative inquiry, dialogue, reflection, innovation and critical pedagogy
- critically examining the ethical principles, ethical knowledge and ethical actions that contribute to collective ethical pedagogy and leadership
- critically exploring and integrating environmentally sustainable practices, policies and pedagogies
- critically examining processes to foster responsible and active environmental stewardship and democratic citizenship

- collaboratively exploring the co-construction of communities of inquiry committed to critical pedagogy, ongoing professional learning and collective professional efficacy (for example, through involvement in professional learning communities, associations and networks)
- critically exploring innovative practices for integrating information and communication technology to enhance teaching and learning
- critically examining the processes involved in creating and sustaining safe, healthy, equitable, holistic and inclusive learning environments that honour and respect diversity, facilitate student learning, foster student voice, encourage critical thinking and promote social justice
- critically examining qualitative and quantitative research associated with professional practices, policies and pedagogies in support of student learning, empowerment and agency
- critically exploring and integrating educational processes, practices and policies that support students' well-being, resiliency, efficacy and mental health
- critically exploring and integrating inclusive processes for fostering interprofessional collaboration that support the collaborative development and implementation of Individual Education Plans (IEPs) and Transition Plans for students that include the voices of all those involved and to ensure that all students will benefit from taking French as a Second Language
- critically examining processes, practices and policies that contribute to a school and/or system culture of inquiry that promotes openness to innovation, change, culturally inclusive pedagogies and the democratization of knowledge
- exploring the significance and developing an appreciation of la Francophonie contributions (for example, Francophone-speaking cultures and institutions) at the local, national and international level
- exploring avenues for engaging students in French cultural experiences
- exploring strategies to engage parent, caregiver and community voices in the support of student learning and the learning environment
- critically innovating and fostering positive change through commitment to a shared vision.

C) Ontario Context: Curriculum, Policies, Legislation, Frameworks, Strategies and Resources

The Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I is aligned with current Ontario curriculum, relevant legislation, government policies, frameworks, strategies and resources. These documents inform the design, development and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I and can be viewed at www.edu.gov.on.ca.

Course candidates are also encouraged to critically explore the policies, practices and resources available at school and board levels that inform teaching and learning related to French as a Second Language.

D) Theoretical Foundations of French as a Second Language, Part I

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring various theoretical frameworks underpinning this AQ, the principles fundamental to these frameworks and their practical applications in supporting student learning
- critically exploring and integrating theories of development and identity formation to inform practice and support student well-being, efficacy and agency
- critically exploring the relevance of critical pedagogy and constructivist theories as theoretical foundations for this AQ
- critically exploring current theoretical research, literature and scholarship related to this AQ
- critically exploring the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession as theoretical foundations for teacher professionalism within the Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I
- critically reflecting on teaching practice and engaging in professional dialogue regarding the relationship between theory and practice, as well as between practice and theory in the teaching of French as a Second Language, Part I

- critically exploring critical pedagogy that is committed to curriculum design using students' inquiry questions, passions and interests
- critically exploring Ontario curriculum, resources and government policies, frameworks and strategies related to French as a Second Language, Part I (for example, A Framework for French as a Second Language in Ontario Schools, Kindergarten to Grade 12)
- critically exploring and integrating learning theories and the individual learning strengths, styles and needs of students
- critically and collaboratively inquiring into the dimensions associated with creating and sustaining safe, inclusive, accepting and engaging learning environments
- critically exploring holistic and inclusive educational programs that build on learners' abilities and empower them to reach their learning goals
- understanding and application of a variety of second language teaching methodologies, approaches and tools
- critically exploring the significance of relevant legislation including the Ontario Human Rights Code, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Safe Schools Act, Accepting Schools Act, Ontarians with Disabilities Act, the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) and associated responsibilities of professional practice
- critically exploring teachers' legal obligations and ethical responsibilities according to current provincial legislation and practices
- critically exploring innovative practices for integrating artistic expression to enhance teaching and learning
- exploring learning theories related to French as a Second Language, Part I
- exploring strategies that illustrate how learning French as a Second Language, Part I strengthens literacy skills as well as cognitive and meta-cognitive development.

E) Program Design, Planning and Implementation

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring and deepening understanding of how the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession can inform a program planning framework

- critically exploring the influence of society's diverse and changing nature on student learning, resiliency and well-being
- critically exploring and deepening understanding of program design, planning, development and implementation strategies and frameworks related to French as a Second Language, Part I
- critically exploring the philosophical underpinnings that strengthen teachers' professional efficacy to support curricular and interdisciplinary integration
- critically exploring various approaches to curricular integration through diverse planning models, content and resource development, pedagogical practices and the implementation of equitable assessment and evaluation practices
- planning and developing programs that reflect the differences among French as a Second Language programs (such as Core, Extended and Immersion)
- engaging in critical inquiry related to the holistic programming of French as a Second Language, Part I
- exploring collaborative dialogue to facilitate authentic oral communication
- integrating knowledge of la Francophonie (for example, local, national and international levels) to support program planning and implementation
- exploring multiple literacy initiatives in order to facilitate and enhance student learning (for example, visual, media, digital and financial)
- critically developing innovative lessons and unit plans that enrich curriculum content, engage student interest and facilitate learning French as a Second Language, Part I
- integrating a variety of interactive instructional strategies appropriate for the adolescent's learning style, for both individual and group learning experiences in French as a Second Language
- creating learning and teaching environments which foster verbal interaction
- exploring curricular implications of educational transitions
- developing and implementing innovative programs that reflect Canada's diverse student population

- critically exploring and deepening understanding of differentiated instruction, universal design and the tiered approach in program planning, development and implementation
- critically exploring learning resources that support student learning and engagement (for example, print, visual and digital)
- exploring and assessing a variety of digital and print texts, including literary works of la Francophonie to support the development of critical thinking skills
- critically exploring and planning learning opportunities and programs that support various educational pathways and goals
- critically exploring how students' lived experiences, identities, narratives, development, strengths, inquiries, interests and needs can inform program planning, development and implementation
- critically exploring the integration of culturally inclusive pedagogies within program design, planning and development
- critically exploring strategies that support learners' resiliency, well-being and mental health
- critically exploring and planning interactive instructional processes that take into account students' learning styles, strengths and experiences and that provide opportunities for both individual and group learning experiences in French as a Second Language
- critically exploring pedagogical documentation and utilizing a variety of assessment processes to inform program planning, support student learning and foster student engagement
- exploring innovative pedagogical practices that illuminate the relevance of French as a second language for enhancing the lives and enriching the ongoing learning of students
- exploring the connection between French as a second language and students' authentic and relevant experiences
- exploring innovative practices that embed information technology in teaching and learning French as a Second Language, Part I
- exploring various strategies for the teaching of speaking, listening, reading and writing skills in order to facilitate effective communication in French as a second language
- exploring effective methods of embedding language structures (for example, grammar and vocabulary) within various authentic contexts

- exploring learning environment that encourage students to self-regulate and apply meta-cognitive approaches to enhance French language speaking, listening, reading and writing skills
- demonstrating knowledge of the history of la Francophonie in Canada (for example, language, cultures and peoples) to support program planning, development and implementation
- exploring a variety of media texts to support the development of critical thinking skills
- exploring experiential and action oriented approaches in language teaching and learning
- reflecting on current pedagogical practices to enhance French language teaching and learning
- exploring strategies to expand learning opportunities in French as a second language
- exploring opportunities and strategies to enhance student, parent, educator and community engagement with the French language and culture.

F) Learning Environments and Instructional Strategies

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring processes for the creation of inclusive and vibrant learning environments that reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession
- creating and sustaining positive, ethical, equitable, accepting, inclusive, engaging and safe learning environments
- critically exploring processes for engaging all members of the community, supporting dialogue and collegiality and nurturing a sense of belonging
- exploring strategies to create a school culture that values verbal, visual and written interactions and proficiency in French
- critically exploring processes for fostering a collaborative community of empowered and engaged lifelong learners where students are interactive French language participants
- fostering engaging, trusting and inviting learning environments that promote student voice, leadership, critical inquiry and self-regulation

- critically exploring a variety of instructional strategies to support student learning, resiliency and well-being, as well as the teaching of French as a second language
- cultivating safe, ethical, legal and respectful practices in the use of information and communication technologies to support pedagogical practices
- critically exploring inclusive and innovative learning environments that integrate a variety of instructional strategies to respond to the interests, strengths and needs of all learners (for example, universal design, experiential learning, differentiated instruction, inquiry and the tiered approach)
- critically exploring processes that engage students as active, democratic and global citizens in supporting environmental, social and economic sustainability
- critically exploring the professional identity, knowledge and leadership practices of educators as described in the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession, the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession, the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession and the Foundations of Professional Practice
- exploring methods for consensus-building, participatory democracy and student empowerment at the school and community levels
- critically exploring learning environments that promote all aspects of French culture and the co-creation of knowledge
- exploring strategies to create learning environments where French is valued, knowledge is co-constructed and proficiency in language skills is facilitated through modelling and interactions in French
- implementing effective classroom management strategies that promote student self-regulation
- identifying factors in a diverse and changing society that affect the adolescent learner in French as a Second Language (for example, media, technology, socioeconomics, family patterns, language, culture and gender)
- creating teaching and learning environments where French is valued as the language of instruction and interaction
- deepening understanding of the impact of a positive learning environment on student behaviour and learning French as a Second Language
- creating a culture of respect where diversity and inclusiveness are valued

- engaging in dialogue on critical reflective practice to understand and enhance existing communication and leadership skills.

G) Reflecting, Documenting and Interpreting Learning

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring fair, equitable, transparent, valid and reliable assessment and evaluation methods that honour the dignity, emotional wellness, identity and development of all students
- critically exploring feedback processes that empower and inspire students to positively reflect on and identify goals for their learning
- fostering an examination of feedback that engages students in the critical analysis and interpretation of the learning process
- critically exploring equitable and inclusive processes for reflecting, documenting and interpreting learning
- critically exploring and integrating assessment, evaluation and reporting practices that align with the principles and processes of Ontario's curriculum, frameworks and policy documents
- critically exploring assessment practices for the following three purposes: to provide timely and ongoing feedback to students and to adjust instruction (assessment for learning); to develop students' capacity to be independent, autonomous learners (assessment as learning); to make informed judgements about the quality of student learning (assessment of learning)
- critically exploring multiple assessment practices for oral communication within authentic contexts that are supported by reading and writing
- critically exploring assessment and evaluation methods that consider conversation, interaction and learning outcomes in the assessment and evaluation of individual and of collaborative learning
- exploring practical and relevant assessments that are reflective of the 'big ideas' in program planning.

H) Shared Responsibility for Learning

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring a variety of effective communication and engagement strategies for authentic collaboration with parents/guardians, school/board personnel and community agencies
- fostering partnerships with parents/guardians that honour and value shared decision-making, advocacy and leadership
- critically and creatively exploring processes to encourage and honour student voice and identity in the learning process through shared decision-making and leadership
- creating opportunities to engage in dialogue relating to French as a Second Language, Part I expectations, instructional activities and assessments with parents/caregivers to support student learning
- critically exploring strategies and opportunities for professional collaboration that support student learning, resiliency, well-being and leadership
- critically exploring and openly addressing biases, discrimination and systemic barriers in order to support student learning, resiliency, well-being and inclusion
- critically exploring and analyzing positive, inclusive educational and professional cultures in which perspectives are freely-expressed and critically analyzed
- understanding and respecting the importance of shared responsibility and partnership that promotes social and ecological justice as conveyed in the Foundations of Professional Practice
- critically exploring professional collaboration within interdisciplinary teams to support student learning, resiliency, self-advocacy and transitions
- exploring strategies to foster a culture that encourages and values parents'/guardians' engagement in French as a Second Language
- exploring strategies to foster parent/guardian understanding of French as a Second Language programs
- exploring cross-curricular opportunities and connections for the French as a Second Language learner

- exploring strategies to deepen understanding among school and community members of the additional value and benefits of French as a Second Language
- developing strategies to advocate for the benefits of French as a Second Language, Part I skills for all learners with various stakeholders (for example, parent council, guidance, teacher librarians, subject departments and administration)
- exploring opportunities to engage in professional collaboration and learning that supports student learning through professional organizations, networking and professional learning communities.

I) Commitment to Ongoing Professional Learning

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- exploring various adult learning processes and resources for the ongoing development of a second language
- exploring opportunities for language development in French in support of French as a Second Language teaching and learning
- exploring self-directed professional linguistic portfolios to support ongoing development as a second language learner and teacher
- integrating the practical use of French in authentic contexts with confidence
- seeking opportunities for individual and collective ongoing development (for example, exploring capacity-building, teams and self and inspiring a high level of commitment and performance)
- critically cultivating integrity and leadership throughout individual and collective professional practice
- actively engaging in a culture of professional learning.

J) Research, Professional Learning and the Scholarship of Pedagogy

The exploration of the following guiding concepts will be facilitated through holistic and interrelated inquiry processes:

- critically exploring and reflecting on past, current and evolving practices in French as a Second Language
- critically exploring professional practice through ongoing inquiry into theory and pedagogy/andragogy
- engaging in transformational professional learning through research, scholarship and leadership
- critically exploring critical pedagogy that integrates research and the scholarship of pedagogy/andragogy into teaching practice
- engaging in research and the scholarship of critical pedagogy/andragogy to advance communities of practice
- critically exploring knowledge-creation and mobilization to enhance professional practice and leadership.

6. Instructional Design and Practices in the Additional Qualification Course: French as a Second Language, Part I

The instructional design and practices (Figure 5) employed in this AQ course reflect adult learning theories, effective andragogical processes and experiential learning methods that promote critical reflection, dialogue and inquiry.

Candidates collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences, holistic integration processes and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course.

In the implementation of this Additional Qualification course, instructors facilitate andragogical processes that are relevant, meaningful and practical to provide candidates with inquiry-based learning experiences related to program design, planning, instruction, pedagogy, integration and assessment and evaluation. The andragogical processes include but are not limited to: experiential learning, role-play, simulations, journal writing, self-directed projects, independent study, small group interaction, dialogue, action research, inquiry, pedagogical documentation, collaborative learning, narrative, case methodologies and critical reflective praxis.

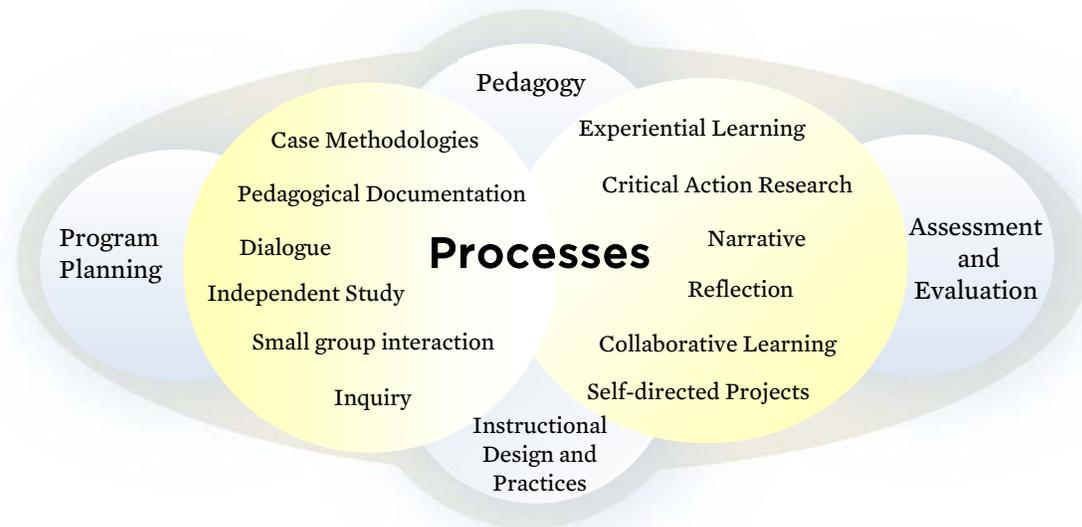

Figure 5: Instructional Processes

Instructors embody the Ethical Standards of the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession, honour the principles of adult learning, respect candidates' experience, recognize prior learning, integrate culturally inclusive practices and respond to individual inquiries, interests and needs. Important to the course are opportunities for candidates to create support networks, receive feedback from colleagues and instructors and share their learning with others. Opportunities for professional reading, reflection, dialogue and expression are also integral parts of the course.

Instructors model critical inquiry, universal design and differentiated instruction and assessment practices that can be replicated or adapted in a variety of classroom settings. The language of instruction for this Additional Qualification is French.

Experiential Learning

Candidates will be provided with opportunities to engage in experiential learning related to key concepts and aspects of French as a Second Language, Part I as collaboratively determined by both the instructor and course candidates. The intent of the experiential learning opportunities is to support the application and integration of practice and theory within the authentic context of teaching and learning. Candidates will also engage in critical reflection and analysis of their engagement in experiential learning opportunities and inquiries related to French as a Second Language, Part I. The professional judgment, knowledge, skills, efficacy and pedagogical practices of candidates will be enhanced and refined through experiential learning and critical inquiry.

The College's standards-based resources help to support experiential learning through various professional inquiry processes. These can be found at: <http://www.oct.ca/resources/categories/professional-standards-and-designation>

7. Assessment and Evaluation of Candidates

At the beginning of the course, candidates will collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course. Instructors will provide opportunities for regular and meaningful feedback regarding candidates' progress throughout the course.

A balanced approach to candidate assessment and evaluation is used. It includes the combination of self, peer and mutual (instructor and candidate) assessment, as well as instructor evaluation. The assessment and evaluation strategies reflect effective, collaborative and inquiry-based practices. A variety of assessment approaches will be used that enable candidates to convey their learning related to course inquiries. The course provides opportunities for both formative and summative assessment and evaluation.

Central to candidates enrolled in Additional Qualification courses is the opportunity to be engaged in relevant and meaningful inquiries. Assignments, artefacts and projects enable candidates to make connections between theory and practice. At the same time, assignments also allow candidates flexibility, choice and the opportunity to design individual inquiry opportunities.

Learning processes support an in-depth exploration of concepts and inquiries. These processes occur over the duration of the course and are reflective of critical thinking and reflection as the candidate gains knowledge and skills over the duration of the course.

The evaluation practices will also support significant and in-depth critical inquiries utilizing a variety of processes over the duration of the course. These inquiry-based assessment processes provide opportunities for candidates to illustrate a depth of professional knowledge, skills, pedagogies, ethical practices and instructional leadership.

A final culminating experience in the course is recommended. This synthesis experience will reflect the in-depth knowledge and understanding gained as a result of engagement in this AQ. It will also include critical reflections and an analysis of a candidate's learning over time.

The following processes are provided to guide assessment practices within this AQ course and are reflective of experiential learning and critical pedagogies. This list is not exhaustive.

a) Pedagogical Leadership: co-constructing, designing and critically assessing culturally inclusive learning opportunities that integrate student voice, strengths, interests and needs. The learning opportunities will incorporate a variety of technologies and resources and are reflective of Ministry of Education curriculum b) Pedagogical Portfolio: creating a professional portfolio that critically analyzes teaching and learning philosophies, assumptions, practices and pedagogies designed to inform ethical and democratic learning environments c) Pedagogical Documentation: assembling visible records (for example, written notes, photos, videos, audio recordings, artefacts and records of students' learning) that enable teachers, parents and students to discuss, interpret and reflect upon the learning process d) Critical Action Research: engaging in individual and/or collaborative action research that is informed by the critical exploration of various action research approaches e) Case Inquiry: critically reflecting on and inquiring into professional practice through case writing and/or case discussion	g) Narrative Inquiry: collaboratively and critically analyzing narratives of teaching and learning through a number of lenses (for example, professional identity, professional efficacy, ethical leadership and critical pedagogies) utilizing the processes of narrative writing and/or narrative discussion h) Innovative Learning Experience: designing and facilitating an engaging, innovative learning experience that reflects differentiated instruction, universal design and the tiered approach i) IEP Development: collaboratively developing an IEP with the family, student and school team j) Partnership Plan: designing a comprehensive plan that engages students, families and the school and local communities in collaborative partnerships that support student learning, growth, resiliency and well-being k) Critical Reflection: critically analyzing educational issues associated with this AQ utilizing scholarly research through multiple representations (for example, narratives, written documentation and images or graphics) l) Visual Narrative: creating a visual narrative (for example, digital story) that helps to support the collective professional identity of the teaching profession and advances professional knowledge and pedagogy.
---	--

f) Transition Plan: critically reflecting on and analyzing a student transition plan and generating recommendations for enhancement
--	--

Appendix 1

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession represent a vision of professional practice. At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The Purposes of the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire members to reflect and uphold the honour and dignity of the teaching profession
- to identify the ethical responsibilities and commitments in the teaching profession
- to guide ethical decisions and actions in the teaching profession
- to promote public trust and confidence in the teaching profession.

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

Care

The ethical standard of Care includes compassion, acceptance, interest and insight for developing students' potential. Members express their commitment to students' well-being and learning through positive influence, professional judgment and empathy in practice.

Respect

Intrinsic to the ethical standard of Respect are trust and fair-mindedness. Members honour human dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development. In their professional practice, they model respect for spiritual and cultural values, social justice, confidentiality, freedom, democracy and the environment.

Trust

The ethical standard of Trust embodies fairness, openness and honesty. Members' professional relationships with students, colleagues, parents, guardians and the public are based on trust.

Integrity

Honesty, reliability and moral action are embodied in the ethical standard of Integrity. Continual reflection assists members in exercising integrity in their professional commitments and responsibilities.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession provide a framework of principles that describes the knowledge, skills and values inherent in Ontario's teaching profession. These standards articulate the goals and aspirations of the profession. These standards convey a collective vision of professionalism that guides the daily practices of members of the Ontario College of Teachers.

The Purposes of the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire a shared vision for the teaching profession
- to identify the values, knowledge and skills that are distinctive to the teaching profession
- to guide the professional judgment and actions of the teaching profession
- to promote a common language that fosters an understanding of what it means to be a member of the teaching profession.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

Commitment to Students and Student Learning

Members are dedicated in their care and commitment to students. They treat students equitably and with respect and are sensitive to factors that influence individual student learning. Members facilitate the development of students as contributing citizens of Canadian society.

Professional Knowledge

Members strive to be current in their professional knowledge and recognize its relationship to practice. They understand and reflect on student development, learning theory, pedagogy, curriculum, ethics, educational research and related policies and legislation to inform professional judgment in practice.

Professional Practice

Members apply professional knowledge and experience to promote student learning. They use appropriate pedagogy, assessment and evaluation, resources and technology in planning for and responding to the needs of individual students and learning communities.

Members refine their professional practice through ongoing inquiry, dialogue and reflection.

Leadership in Learning Communities

Members promote and participate in the creation of collaborative, safe and supportive learning communities. They recognize their shared responsibilities and their leadership roles in order to facilitate student success. Members maintain and uphold the principles of the ethical standards in these learning communities.

Ongoing Professional Learning

Members recognize that a commitment to ongoing professional learning is integral to effective practice and to student learning. Professional practice and self-directed learning are informed by experience, research, collaboration and knowledge.