

Ontario
College of Teachers

Ordre des enseignantes et des enseignants
de l'Ontario

Additional Qualification Course Guideline Guidance and Career Education, Specialist

Schedule D Teachers' Qualifications Regulation

April 2014

Ce document est disponible en français sous le titre Ligne directrice du cours menant à la qualification additionnelle Orientation et formation au cheminement de carrière, spécialiste, avril 2014.

Additional Qualification Course Guideline Guidance and Career Education, Specialist

1. Introduction

The guideline for Guidance and Career Education is organized using the following framework.

Diagram 1: Guideline Organization

Three-session specialist Additional Qualification courses identified in Schedule D (Teachers' Qualifications Regulation 176/10) are intended for the purposes of:

- enhancing professional practice, and extending knowledge and skills as outlined in the Guidance and Career Education course (Part I)
- enhancing professional practice; extending, applying and designing learning opportunities that reflect the knowledge and skills as outlined in the Guidance and Career Education course (Part II)
- enhancing professional leadership practice through the facilitation of collective critical reflection and inquiry as outlined in the Guidance and Career Education course (Specialist)

The Additional Qualification Course: Guidance and Career Education Specialist employs a critical, pedagogical lens to explore in holistic and integrated manner theoretical foundations, the development of learners, program planning and implementation, learning preferences, instructional practices, assessment and evaluation, the learning environment and ethical considerations related to teaching and learning across the divisions to support student well-being.

The Ontario College of Teachers recognizes that candidates working in the publicly funded school system, independent/private institutions or First Nations schools will have a need to explore topics and issues of particular relevance to the context in which they work or may work.

Critical to the implementation of this course is the modeling of a positive learning environment that reflects care, diversity and equity. This course supports the enhancement of professional knowledge, ethical practice, leadership and ongoing learning.

The French language and the English language communities will also need to implement these guidelines to reflect the unique contextual dimensions and needs of each community. Each of these language communities will explore the guideline content from distinct perspectives and areas of emphasis. This flexibility will enable both language communities to implement Guidance and Career Education as understood from a variety of contexts.

The Guidance and Career Education Specialist additional qualification course guideline provides a conceptual framework for providers and instructors to develop and facilitate the Guidance and Career Education Specialist course. The guideline framework is intended to be a fluid, holistic and integrated representation of key concepts associated with Guidance and Career Education.

2. Regulatory Context

The College is the self-regulating body for the teaching profession in Ontario. The College's responsibility related to courses leading to additional qualifications includes the following:

- To establish and enforce professional standards and ethical standards applicable to members of the College.
- To provide for the ongoing education of members of the College.

- To accredit Additional Qualification courses and more specifically,

The program content and expected achievement of persons enrolled in the program match the skills and knowledge reflected in the College’s “Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession” and the “Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession” and in the program guidelines issued by the College. (Regulation 347/02, Accreditation of Teacher Education Programs, Part IV Subsection 24).

Additional qualifications for teachers are identified in the Teachers’ Qualifications Regulation. This regulation includes courses that lead to Additional Qualifications, the Principal’s Qualifications and the Supervisory Officer’s Qualifications. A session of a course leading to an Additional Qualification shall consist of a minimum of 125 hours as approved by the Registrar. Accredited Additional Qualification courses reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession, the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession.

The course developed from this guideline is open to candidates who meet the entry requirements identified in the Teachers’ Qualifications Regulation.

Successful completion of the course leading to the Additional Qualification: Guidance and Career Education, Specialist listed in Schedule D of the Teachers’ Qualifications Regulation, is recorded on the Certificate of Qualification and Registration.

In this document, all references to “candidates” are to teachers enrolled in the Additional Qualification course. References to “students” indicate those enrolled in school programs.

3. Foundations of Professional Practice

The Foundations of Professional Practice conveys a provincial vision of what it means to be a teacher in Ontario. This vision lies at the core of teacher professionalism. The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession (Appendix 1) are the foundation for the development and in the realization of the Additional Qualification course. These nine standards, as principles of professional practice, provide the focus for ongoing professional learning and are the foundation for the development and implementation of the Additional Qualification course Guidance and Career Education Specialist. In addition, the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession is underpinned by the standards, articulates the principles on which effective teacher learning is based and acknowledges a range of options that promote continuous professional learning. The ongoing enhancement of informed professional judgment, which is acquired through the processes of lived experience, inquiry, and reflection, is central to the embodiment of the standards and the Professional Learning Framework within this AQ course and professional practice.

The Ethical Standards of the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession serve as guiding frameworks that underpin professional knowledge, skills and experiences that teachers require in order to teach effectively within and contribute to an environment that fosters respect, care, trust and integrity.

Teacher-Education Resources

The College has developed resources to support the effective integration of the standards within Additional Qualification courses. These teacher education resources explore the integration of the standards within professional practice through a variety of educative, research and inquiry-based processes. This guideline has been designed to reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession. These resources can be found on the College web site (www.oct.ca). These resources support the development of professional knowledge and professional judgment through reflective practice. The lived experiences of Ontario educators are illuminated in the resources and serve as AQ course support for teacher education.

4. Conceptual Framework

The design, course content and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course Guideline: Guidance and Career Education Specialist support effective teacher education practices. These course guideline components provide a conceptual framework for the development of a holistic, integrated, experiential and inquiry-based course. The following conceptual framework of this guideline supports and informs professional knowledge, judgment and practices within the Additional Qualification Course Guidance and Career Education Specialist.

Diagram 2: Conceptual Framework for Guidance and Career Education

A) The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession:

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession represent a collective vision of professional practice. At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The holistic integration of the standards within all course components supports the embodiment of the collective vision of the teaching profession that guides professional knowledge, learning, and practice. The following principles and concepts support this holistic integration within the AQ course.

- understanding and embodying care, trust, respect and integrity
- fostering commitment to students and student learning

- integrating professional knowledge
- enriching and developing professional practice
- supporting leadership in learning communities
- engaging in ongoing professional learning.

Through professional dialogue, collaborative reflection and an ethical culture, course candidates will continue to critically inquire into and refine professional practice and ethical culture through the lens of the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession.

B) A Framework for Inquiry

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are embedded throughout the Additional Qualification course guideline.

This Additional Qualification course supports critical reflective inquiry and dialogue related to the following:

- providing leadership in the implementation of Ontario's curriculum, policies, frameworks, strategies, programs, guidelines and educational initiatives
- modelling the integration of knowledge of First Nations, Métis and Inuit ways of knowing and perspectives into practice
- facilitating the application of theoretical understanding to support the design, assessment and implementation of practices and/or programs at the local and district level related to Guidance and Career Education
- providing leadership in identifying and implementing pedagogical strategies and assessment and evaluation practices that meet the individual needs of students, and promote student learning
- critically exploring leadership in the creation of holistic learning environments conducive to the intellectual, social, emotional, physical, linguistic, cultural, spiritual and moral development of students
- fostering collaborative leadership with in-school personnel, parents/guardians and the community

- facilitating the use of a variety of appropriate resources, including technological and communication resources, to enhance professional knowledge in support of student learning
- fostering shared leadership in enhancing professional practice through ongoing collaborative inquiry, dialogue and reflection
- modelling ethical practices and addressing ethical issues
- fostering dialogue to critically and collaboratively explore and integrate environmentally sustainable practices
- fostering an ethical culture that integrates responsible, active environmental citizenship
- facilitating professional learning communities and participation in professional subject associations and networking that critically explore dimensions of school/board cultures that impact teaching and learning
- facilitating innovative practices and shared leadership in the integration of information and communication technology to enhance teaching and learning
- facilitating critical dialogue related to the integration of innovative strategies for creating and sustaining safe, healthy, equitable and inclusive learning environments that honour and respect diversity and foster student learning
- fostering opportunities to critically explore career education processes, experiences and opportunities to support student pathways
- critically and collaboratively exploring ethical practices, policies and guidelines associated with school guidance counselling
- facilitating an understanding of the role of the guidance teacher/counsellor in collaboration with all educational and community partners
- fostering an understanding of the continuum of Guidance and Career Education including K-12 and post-secondary education
- facilitating critical reflection on the integration of qualitative and quantitative research into professional practice
- fostering an ethical culture that honours the relationship between education, mental health and well-being
- facilitating dialogue that critically explores and integrates educational strategies that support learners' well-being and mental health needs
- fostering school environments that promote the collaborative development and implementation of Individual Education Plans (IEPs) with interdisciplinary school teams

- fostering a dialogue that contributes to a culture that promotes openness to innovation and change.

C) Ontario Context: Curriculum, Policies, Legislation, Frameworks, Strategies and Resources

The Additional Qualification Course Guidance and Career Education Specialist is aligned with current Ontario curriculum, relevant legislation, government policies, frameworks, strategies and resources. These documents inform the development and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course: Guidance and Career Education Specialist and can be viewed at www.edu.gov.on.ca.

Course candidates are also encouraged to critically explore the policies, practices and resources available at school and board levels that inform teaching and learning related to Guidance and Career Education.

D) Theoretical Foundations of Guidance and Career Education Specialist

- providing leadership in the critical exploration of theories of child and adolescent development and identity formation through multiple lenses (for example, equity, human rights, culture, gender)
- facilitating leadership in the application of theories of child and adolescent development
- modeling the implementation of Ontario curriculum, resources and government policies, frameworks, strategies and programs related to the teaching and learning of Guidance and Career Education
- facilitating dialogue regarding learning theories and the particular learning needs of the student
- fostering leadership in the understanding and application of conceptual frameworks related to Guidance and Career Education
- fostering leadership, critical reflection and professional dialogue regarding the relationship between theory and practice in the teaching of Guidance and Career Education
- cultivating professional leadership reflective of the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession within the context of the Additional Qualification: Guidance and Career Education

- fostering shared leadership in the critical exploration of the complexity of the concept of culture (beyond ethnicity and race) and the intersection of cultures (for example, youth cultures, gender cultures)
- critically and collaboratively exploring theories of advocacy that cultivate the resilience of students and all members of the school community (students, teachers, administrators, support, parent/guardians/caregivers, community partners) within an equity and human rights framework
- fostering opportunities to critically explore post-secondary education and career guidance in relation to students' individual strengths and aspirations
- facilitating shared leadership and critical reflection on the significance of relevant legislation including the Ontario Human Rights Code, Ontarians with Disabilities Act, and the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) and associated responsibilities within professional practice
- fostering collective understanding of teachers' legal obligations and ethical responsibilities according to current provincial legislation
- fostering an ethical culture that engages in critical reflection regarding the dimensions associated with creating and sustaining safe learning environments
- facilitating dialogue regarding the development of holistic and inclusive educational programs that build on learners' abilities and empower them to reach their learning goals.

E) Program Planning, Development and Implementation

- fostering leadership in the exploration and implementation of program planning frameworks that reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession
- facilitating critical inquiry into the development and implementation of programs that are sensitive to society's diverse and changing nature and its influence on student learning and well-being
- cultivating leadership in program planning, development, implementation strategies and frameworks related to Guidance and Career Education
- facilitating dialogue with regard to the integration of concepts of differentiated instruction, universal design and the tiered approach in program planning, development and implementation

- facilitating the critical exploration and integration of learning resources (for example, print, visual, digital) that support student learning
- critically and collaboratively exploring the dimensions associated with development from K-12 and post-secondary destinations
- cultivating leadership in critically exploring effective, collaborative transition planning to support student learning
- fostering an understanding of the experiences and impact of marginalization of students and members of the school community and exploring strategies of re-engagement
- foster critically exploring current information regarding post-secondary pathways and
- foster leadership in critically exploring resources (for example, financial assistance, employment counseling, community mentors) available for students to support post-secondary pathways
- critically and collaboratively exploring opportunities to engage students in a leadership role in supporting the healthy schools initiative among their peers
- fostering collective and innovative learning opportunities and programs that support various educational pathways and goals
- fostering shared leadership in critically exploring, developing and implementing programs that respond to students' lived experiences, development, strengths, interests and needs
- foster leadership in critically exploring strategies to address discriminatory biases, systemic barriers and power dynamics that limit students' prospects for learning, growing and fully contributing to society
- fostering and promoting a culture that supports both self and collective advocacy to enhance equitable opportunities for student learning, well-being and lifelong pathways
- facilitating leadership practices and innovation in integrating culturally responsive pedagogy within program planning and development
- facilitating the integration of strategies that support learners' well-being and mental health needs
- fostering the critical exploration and implementation of instructional strategies that integrate students' learning styles, strengths and experiences

- facilitating the critical exploration and integration of multiple formal and informal assessment methods and data to inform program planning and support student learning
- critically and collaboratively exploring the role of information and communication technology within Guidance and Career Education.

F) Leadership in the Instructional Setting

- cultivating leadership related to creating and sustaining positive, ethical, equitable, accepting and safe learning environments
- foster opportunities to critically explore social, emotional and cultural aspects associated with sustaining a positive, equitable, accepting and safe learning environment
- fostering leadership capacity related to creating and sustaining a collaborative community of empowered learners
- cultivating a school culture that embraces engaging, trusting and inviting learning environments that promote student voice, leadership, critical inquiry and self-regulation
- facilitating a culture of inquiry and innovation related to instructional strategies that support the teaching of Guidance and Career Education
- fostering a culture that implements safe, ethical and respectful practices in the use of technology in purposeful and legal ways
- fostering leadership and innovation related to information and communication technologies that support student learning
- facilitating leadership in the application of strategies for adapting instruction to meet the needs of all learners
- fostering professional dialogue regarding strategies that engage students as active citizens in supporting environmental, social and economic sustainability
- foster opportunities to critically explore how guidance and career education courses and programming can support student learning and well-being
- foster leadership in critically exploring differentiated instructional strategies that respond to the developmental stages of student learning
- foster an understanding the role of individual, small and large group instructional strategies to support personal, career and educational planning

- facilitating dialogue and inquiry related to critical pedagogies that reflect the professional identity of educators as described in the ethical standards, the standards of practice and in the Foundations of Professional Practice
- facilitating knowledge-creation and mobilization related to inclusive learning environments that reflects the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession
- facilitate understanding and applying interpersonal skill development including attending skills, empathy skills, clarifying/questioning skills, problem solving skills and conflict resolution
- fostering leadership in critically practicing professional efficacy, self and collective advocacy and collaboration
- cultivating a culture of fair and equitable counselling practices that honour the dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development of all students
- modelling the application of instructional strategies to engage students in addressing individual and systemic acts of bias and discrimination and the prejudicial premises from which they are derived.

G) Reflecting, Documenting and Interpreting Learning

- fostering a culture of fair, equitable, transparent, valid, and reliable assessment and evaluation practices that honour the dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development of all students
- fostering a culture that critically explores assessment, evaluation and reporting practices that align with the principles and processes of Ontario's curriculum, frameworks and policy documents
- facilitating the integration of assessment practices for the following three purposes: to provide feedback to students and to adjust instruction (assessment for learning); to develop students' capacity to be independent, autonomous learners (assessment as learning); to make informed judgements about the quality of student learning (assessment of learning)
- fostering opportunities to critically explore instructional strategies and assessment and evaluation practices that are responsive to students who live diverse social and cognitive realities and worldviews.

H) Shared Responsibility for Learning

- fostering an ethical culture that integrates a variety of effective communication and engagement strategies for ongoing collaboration with parents/guardians, school/board personnel and community agencies
- facilitating an understanding of the wide range of community partners available to support students in their education and career planning including community and business partners, cooperative education, community agencies, and health and wellness agencies
- fostering an ethical culture that informs professional collaboration with school personnel, community partners and various student support teams that support student learning and well-being
- fostering an ethical culture that collectively addresses biases, discrimination and systemic barriers in order to support student learning, well-being and inclusion
- collaboratively fostering and sustaining a positive, inclusive educational culture in which all perspectives are encouraged, valued and heard
- fostering an ethical culture of shared responsibility and partnership as conveyed in the Foundations of Professional Practice
- fostering a culture of collaboration with interdisciplinary teams to support student learning, self-advocacy and transitions
- fostering leadership in the collaborative exploration of resources (for example, financial assistance, employment counseling, community mentors) available for students to support post-secondary pathways with students and families.

I) Research, Professional Learning and the Scholarship of Pedagogy

- facilitating a critical and collaborative examination of current practices in relation to past, and evolving practices in Guidance and Career Education
- critically exploring professional practice through ongoing inquiry into theory and pedagogy/andragogy
- engaging in professional learning through research, scholarship and leadership
- integrating research and the scholarship of pedagogy/andragogy into teaching practice

- collaborating in research and the scholarship of pedagogy/andragogy
- fostering knowledge-creation and mobilization within professional practice.

5. Instructional Practice in the Additional Qualification Course: Guidance and Career Education Specialist

Candidates will collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences, and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course.

In the implementation of this Additional Qualification course, instructors use strategies that are relevant, meaningful and practical in providing candidates with learning experiences about instruction, pedagogy and assessment and evaluation. These include but are not limited to: experiential learning, small group interaction; action research; presentations; independent inquiry; problem solving; collaborative learning and direct instruction.

Instructors model the Ethical Standards of the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession, honour the principles of adult learning, recognize candidates' experience and prior learning and respond to individual needs. Important to the course are opportunities for candidates to create support networks and receive feedback from colleagues and instructors and share the products of their learning with others. Opportunities for professional reading, reflection, dialogue and expression are also integral parts of the course.

Instructors model effective instructional and assessment strategies that can be replicated or adapted in a variety of classroom settings.

A. Experiential Learning

Candidates will be provided with opportunities to engage in experiential learning related to key concepts and aspects of Guidance and Career Education as collaboratively determined by both the instructor and course candidates. The intent of the experiential learning opportunities is to support the application and integration of practice and theory within the authentic context of teaching and learning. Candidates will also engage in critical reflection and analysis of their engagement in experiential learning opportunities related to Guidance and Career

Education. The professional judgment, knowledge and pedagogy of candidates will be enhanced and refined through experiential learning and inquiry.

The College's standards resources help to support experiential learning through various forms of professional inquiry.

6. Assessment and Evaluation of Candidates

At the beginning of the course, candidates will collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences, and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course. Instructors will provide opportunities for regular feedback regarding candidates' progress throughout the course.

A balanced approach to candidate assessment and evaluation is used. It includes the combination of candidate self and peer assessment, as well as instructor evaluation. The assessment and evaluation strategies reflect effective, collaborative and inquiry-based practices. A variety of assessment approaches will be used that enable candidates to convey their learning related to course inquiries. The course provides opportunities for both formative and summative assessment and evaluation.

Central to candidates enrolled in Additional Qualification courses is the opportunity to be engaged in relevant and meaningful inquiries. Assignments, artefacts and projects enable candidates to make connections between theory and practice. At the same time, assignments must allow candidates flexibility, choice and individual inquiry opportunities.

Part of the evaluation process may include a major independent project or action research component over the duration of the course. This project is an opportunity for candidates to illustrate a high level of professional knowledge, communication skills, pedagogy, ethical practices and instructional leadership. Similarly, if a portfolio assignment is used it will also include reflections and analysis of a candidate's learning over time.

A final culminating experience in the course is recommended. This experience may take the form of a written assessment, a research paper, a performance, an inquiry project or a product that is original, meaningful and practical.

The following list of assessment strategies which are reflective of experiential learning is not exhaustive; it is intended to serve as a guide only.

- a) Performance assessment: designing a sample unit which includes a culminating activity and appropriate assessment and evaluation tools, incorporates a variety of technologies and resources relevant to the study of Guidance and Career Education and is based on Ministry of Education curriculum expectations
- b) Written assignment: reflecting critically on issues arising from articles, publications, research and/or other resources related to the teaching or practice of Guidance and Career Education
- c) Presentation: developing a digital story, presenting an issue related to the teaching and learning of Guidance and Career Education
- d) Portfolio: creating a portfolio of practical resources, artefacts, photographs and recording critical reflections for one or several components related to Guidance and Career Education
- e) Action research: engaging in action research by reflecting and acting upon a specific inquiry into teaching practice related to Guidance and Career Education
- f) Independent project: addressing any aspect of the course that is approved by the instructor
- g) Instructional resource: developing a meaningful resource that will support instruction and pedagogy related to the teaching and learning of Guidance and Career Education
- h) Reflective writing: reflecting on professional practice through journal writing, or writing a case or vignette that will support instruction and pedagogy related to the teaching and learning of Guidance and Career Education
- i) Case inquiry: writing or exploring a case related to collaboration and shared partnerships, with parents, colleagues, and community organizations
- j) IEP development: collaboratively develop an IEP related to Guidance and Career Education with the family, student and school team.
- k) Facilitating a Learning Experience: developing and implementing an engaging learning experience that reflects differentiated instruction and universal design and the tiered approach.

Appendix 1

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession represent a vision of professional practice. At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The Purposes of the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire members to reflect and uphold the honour and dignity of the teaching profession
- to identify the ethical responsibilities and commitments in the teaching profession
- to guide ethical decisions and actions in the teaching profession
- to promote public trust and confidence in the teaching profession.

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

Care

The ethical standard of Care includes compassion, acceptance, interest and insight for developing students' potential. Members express their commitment to students' well-being and learning through positive influence, professional judgment and empathy in practice.

Respect

Intrinsic to the ethical standard of Respect are trust and fair-mindedness. Members honour human dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development. In their professional practice, they model respect for spiritual and cultural values, social justice, confidentiality, freedom, democracy and the environment.

Trust

The ethical standard of Trust embodies fairness, openness and honesty. Members' professional relationships with students, colleagues, parents, guardians and the public are based on trust.

Integrity

Honesty, reliability and moral action are embodied in the ethical standard of Integrity. Continual reflection assists members in exercising integrity in their professional commitments and responsibilities.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession provide a framework of principles that describes the knowledge, skills, and values inherent in Ontario's teaching profession. These standards articulate the goals and aspirations of the profession. These standards convey a collective vision of professionalism that guides the daily practices of members of the Ontario College of Teachers.

The Purposes of the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire a shared vision for the teaching profession
- to identify the values, knowledge and skills that are distinctive to the teaching profession
- to guide the professional judgment and actions of the teaching profession
- to promote a common language that fosters an understanding of what it means to be a member of the teaching profession.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

Commitment to Students and Student Learning

Members are dedicated in their care and commitment to students. They treat students equitably and with respect and are sensitive to factors that influence individual student learning. Members facilitate the development of students as contributing citizens of Canadian society.

Professional Knowledge

Members strive to be current in their professional knowledge and recognize its relationship to practice. They understand and reflect on student development, learning theory, pedagogy, curriculum, ethics, educational research and related policies and legislation to inform professional judgment in practice.

Professional Practice

Members apply professional knowledge and experience to promote student learning. They use appropriate pedagogy, assessment and evaluation, resources and technology in planning for and responding to the needs of individual students and learning communities.

Members refine their professional practice through ongoing inquiry, dialogue and reflection.

Leadership in Learning Communities

Members promote and participate in the creation of collaborative, safe and supportive learning communities. They recognize their shared responsibilities and their leadership roles in order to facilitate student success. Members maintain and uphold the principles of the ethical standards in these learning communities.

Ongoing Professional Learning

Members recognize that a commitment to ongoing professional learning is integral to effective practice and to student learning. Professional practice and self-directed learning are informed by experience, research, collaboration and knowledge.