CHANGING INFORMATION ABOUT DEGREES AND / OR PROGRAM OF TEACHER EDUCATION

If you wish to correct the date your degree was conferred, or include an Honours designation, please provide a photocopy of the original degree transcript / copy of the degree scroll and circle/mark the changes you wish to have made.

To update the degree or the name of the granting institution, you must arrange to have the granting institution forward the transcript directly to the College.

The name of your credential will appear on your record in the language of the original document.

- If a degree has not been listed on your certificate, contact the Registrar’s office of the granting institution and arrange for them to send, directly to the College, an official transcript bearing the Registrar’s seal and signature, noting the date the degree was conferred.
- Transcripts issued to students and photocopies are not acceptable.
- Diplomas/certificates from Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology (CAAT), conservatories of music and other non-degree granting institutions are not listed on your Certificate of Qualification and Registration.
- Do not return your incorrect Certificate of Qualification and Registration. Your Certificate of Qualification and Registration for next year will reflect the changes you are requesting. The College will correct your record and send you an acknowledgement to use for salary or other purposes. You can also print an updated copy of your certificate from the Members’ area of our web site at oct.ca → Members.

ADDING A QUALIFICATION EARNED IN ONTARIO

If your certificate is missing a qualification that you think should appear, list the course, the institution and the date completed. The College will verify the information with the institution before adding the course to your Certificate of Qualification and Registration.
