

Ontario
College of Teachers

Ordre des enseignantes et des enseignants
de l'Ontario

Additional Qualification Course Guideline

Language, Grades 7 and 8

(For teaching in English-language schools only - not offered in French)

Schedule C Teachers' Qualifications Regulation

September 2014

Ce document n'est disponible qu'en français.

Additional Qualification Course Guideline

1. Introduction

The guideline for Language, Grades 7 and 8 is organized using the following framework.

Figure 1: Guideline Organization

The Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8 employs a critical, pedagogical lens to explore in a holistic and integrated manner theoretical foundations, development of learners, program planning and implementation, instructional practices, assessment and evaluation, the learning environment and ethical considerations related to teaching and learning across the divisions.

The Ontario College of Teachers recognizes that candidates working in the publicly funded school system, independent/private institutions or First Nations schools will have a need to explore topics and issues of particular relevance to the context in which they work or may work.

Critical to the implementation of this course is the creation of positive learning experiences that reflect care, diversity and equity. This course supports the enhancement of professional knowledge, ethical practice, leadership and ongoing learning.

The French language and the English language communities will also need to implement these guidelines to reflect the unique contextual dimensions and needs of each community. Each of these language communities will explore the guideline content from distinct perspectives and areas of emphasis. This flexibility will enable both language communities to implement Language, Grades 7 and 8 as understood from a variety of contexts.

The Language Grade 7 and 8 Additional Qualification course guideline provides a conceptual framework for providers and instructors to develop and facilitate the Schedule C Language, Grades 7 and 8 course. The guideline framework is intended to be a fluid, holistic and integrated representation of key concepts associated with Language, Grades 7 and 8.

2. Regulatory Context

The College is the self-regulating body for the teaching profession in Ontario. The College's responsibility related to courses leading to Additional Qualifications includes the following:

- To establish and enforce professional standards and ethical standards applicable to members of the College
- To provide for the ongoing education of members of the College
- To accredit Additional Qualification courses and more specifically,

The program content and expected achievement of persons enrolled in the program match the skills and knowledge reflected in the College's Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and in the program guidelines issued by the College. (Regulation 347/02, Accreditation of Teacher Education Programs, Part IV, Subsection 24).

Additional Qualifications for teachers are identified in the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation. This regulation includes courses that lead to Additional Qualifications, the Principal's Qualifications and the Supervisory Officer's Qualifications. A session of a course leading to an Additional Qualification shall consist of a minimum of 125 hours as approved by the Registrar. Accredited Additional Qualification courses reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession, the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession.

The course developed from this guideline is open to candidates who meet the entry requirements identified in the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation.

Successful completion of the course leading to the Additional Qualification: Language, Grades 7 and 8, listed in Schedule C of the Teachers' Qualifications Regulation is recorded on the Certificate of Qualification and Registration.

In this document, all references to candidates are to teachers enrolled in the Additional Qualification course. References to students indicate those enrolled in school programs.

3. Foundations of Professional Practice

The Foundations of Professional Practice conveys a provincial vision of what it means to be a teacher in Ontario. This vision lies at the core of teacher professionalism. The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession (Appendix 1) are the foundation for the development and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8. In addition, the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession is underpinned by the standards, articulates the principles on which effective teacher learning is based and acknowledges a range of options that promote continuous professional learning. The ongoing enhancement of informed professional judgment, which is acquired through the processes of lived experience, inquiry, and reflection, is central to the embodiment of the standards and the Professional Learning Framework within this AQ course and professional practice.

Teacher-Education Resources

The College has developed resources to support the effective integration of the standards within Additional Qualification courses. These teacher education resources explore the integration of the standards within professional practice through a variety of educative, research and inquiry-based processes. This guideline has been designed to reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession and the Professional Learning Framework for the Teaching Profession. These resources can be found on the College web site (www.oct.ca). These resources support the development of professional knowledge and professional judgment through reflective practice. The lived experiences of Ontario educators are illuminated in the resources and serve as AQ course support for teacher education.

4. Conceptual Framework

The design, course content and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course Guideline: Language, Grades 7 and 8 support effective teacher education practices. These course guideline components provide a conceptual framework for the development of a holistic, integrated and experiential course. The following conceptual framework supports and informs professional knowledge, judgment and practice within the Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8.

Figure 2: Conceptual Framework for Language, Grades 7 and 8

A. The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession represent a collective vision of professional practice.

At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The holistic integration of the standards within all course components supports the embodiment of the collective vision of the teaching profession that guides professional knowledge, learning, and practice. The following principles and concepts support this holistic integration within the AQ course:

- understanding and embodying care, trust, respect and integrity
- fostering commitment to students and student learning
- integrating professional knowledge
- enriching and developing professional practice
- supporting leadership in learning communities
- engaging in ongoing professional learning.

Through professional dialogue, collaborative reflection and an ethical culture, course candidates will continue to critically inquire into and refine professional practice and ethical culture through the lens of the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession.

B. A Framework for Inquiry

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are embedded throughout the Additional Qualification course guideline.

This Additional Qualification course supports critical reflective inquiry and dialogue informed by the following:

- analyzing, interpreting and implementing Ontario's curriculum, policies, frameworks, strategies and guidelines
- developing awareness of First Nations, Métis and Inuit ways of knowing and perspectives
- applying the theoretical understanding to design, implement and assess practices and/or programs

- adapting pedagogical strategies and assessment and evaluation practices in response to the individual needs of students
- facilitating the creation of holistic learning environments conducive to the intellectual, social, emotional, physical, linguistic, cultural, spiritual and moral development of students
- collaborating with in-school personnel, parents/guardians and the community
- accessing and critically exploring a variety of resources, including technological resources, within and beyond the educational system to enhance professional knowledge in support of student learning
- refining professional practice through ongoing collaborative inquiry, dialogue and reflection
- modelling ethical practices and addressing ethical issues
- critically exploring and integrating environmentally sustainable practices
- fostering responsible, active environmental citizenship
- collaboratively developing and sustaining professional learning communities for enhancing professional knowledge and supporting student learning
- integrating information and communication technology to enhance teaching and learning
- creating and sustaining safe, healthy, equitable and inclusive learning environments that honour and respect diversity and foster student learning
- understanding the importance of critically examining qualitative and quantitative research related to professional practice
- critically exploring the relationship between education, mental health and well-being
- critically exploring educational strategies that support learners' well-being and mental health needs
- critically exploring strategies for working collaboratively with interdisciplinary school teams to develop and implement Individual Education Plans (IEPS) of students
- exploring strategies that contribute to a culture that promotes openness and innovation.

C. Ontario Context: Curriculum, Policies, Legislation, Frameworks, Strategies and Resources

The Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8 is aligned with current Ontario curriculum, relevant legislation, government policies, frameworks, strategies and resources. These documents inform and reflect the development and implementation of the Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8 and can be viewed at www.edu.gov.on.ca.

Course candidates are also encouraged to critically explore the policies, practices and resources available at school and board levels that inform teaching and learning related to Language, Grades 7 and 8.

D. Theoretical Foundations of the Adolescent Learner

- understanding theories of child and adolescent development
- critically reflecting on Ontario curriculum policies and initiatives, procedures and/or legislation relevant to the learner in Grades 7 & 8 and their language development
- understanding learning theories and the particular learning needs of the student
- critically exploring a variety of conceptual frameworks, theories and research related to the learner in Grades 7 & 8 and their language development
- reflecting on teaching practice and engaging in professional dialogue regarding the relationship between theory and practice in the teaching of language to adolescent learners
- integrating the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession as the foundation for teacher professionalism within the Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8
- critically exploring the significance of relevant legislation including the Ontario Human Rights Code, Ontarians with Disabilities Act, and the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) and associated responsibilities within professional practice

- recognizing teachers' legal obligations and ethical responsibilities according to current provincial legislation
- critically inquiring into the dimensions associated with creating and sustaining safe learning environments
- critically exploring holistic and inclusive educational programs that build on learners' abilities and empower them to reach their learning goals
- critically exploring texts that are culturally relevant, challenging, attainable, and authentic for the adolescent learner
- knowing and applying current theory and research as it applies to adolescent development and teaching pedagogy
- exploring differentiated instruction through content, process, product, affect/learning environment to reflect student interests, readiness, learning styles, and learning preferences
- exploring the expanding notion of "literacy" to include emerging forms of communication
- critically exploring a variety of texts to reflect new and emerging literacies
- integrating into practice opportunities to develop the skills necessary to meet the needs of the 21st century learner.

E. Program Planning, Development and Implementation

- applying the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession to inform a program planning framework
- critically exploring the influence of society's diverse and changing nature on student learning and well-being
- deepening understanding of program planning, development, implementation strategies and frameworks to support individual needs and the holistic development of all students
- deepening understanding of differentiated instruction, universal design and the tiered approach in program planning, development and implementation
- critically exploring learning resources (for example, print, visual, digital) that support student learning

- planning learning opportunities and programs that support various educational pathways and goals
- connecting language learning to students' authentic experiences
- critically exploring how students' lived experiences, development, strengths, interests and needs can inform program planning, development and implementation
- integrating culturally responsive pedagogy within program planning and development
- critically exploring strategies that support learners' well-being and mental health needs
- planning instructional strategies that integrate students' learning styles, strengths and experiences
- critically exploring and integrating multiple formal and informal assessment methods and data to inform program planning and support student learning
- developing an understanding of the big ideas in the Language curriculum in order to integrate literacy skills across curriculum areas (for example, science, history, geography, health, the arts)
- designing and sequencing units integrating overall and specific expectations for the Language curriculum
- selecting and embedding evidence based instructional strategies to meet the needs of the adolescent learner and the curriculum expectations.

F. Learning Environments and Instructional Strategies

- creating and sustaining positive, ethical, equitable, accepting and safe learning environments
- fostering a collaborative community of empowered learners
- fostering engaging, trusting and inviting learning environments that promote student voice, leadership, critical inquiry and self-regulation
- critically exploring a variety of instructional strategies to support the teaching of Language, Grades 7 and 8
- cultivating safe, ethical and respectful practices in the use of technology in purposeful and legal ways

- integrating information and communication technologies that support student learning
- critically exploring a variety of strategies for adapting instruction to meet the needs of all learners
- critically exploring strategies that engage students as active citizens in supporting environmental, social and economic sustainability
- using pedagogies that reflect the professional identity of educators as described in the ethical standards, the standards of practice and in the Foundations of Professional Practice
- creating inclusive learning environments that reflect the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession
- exploring frameworks for comprehensive literacy through the Gradual Release of Responsibility Model (for example, focus lesson, teacher modeling, collaborative learning, independent application and reflection)
- exploring a variety of activities which allow students to develop the ability to think, express, and reflect in response to the variety of texts they will encounter
- integrating into practice opportunities for adolescent learners to be critical and creative thinkers, effective meaning makers and communicators
- understanding the critical role of literacy in developing responsible and productive citizens
- understanding that all students can become literate
- exploring the principles that create successful language development
- identifying a variety of text forms and corresponding writing formats (for example, literary, informational and graphic)
- exploring ways to foster an appreciation for reading
- exploring ways to foster an understanding that adolescents read for various purposes
- critically inquiring into the interrelationship between the four language strands (for example, Reading, Writing, Oral, Media)
- understanding the importance of critical and creative thinking skills to achieve a deeper understanding of the materials read (for example, higher order thinking)

- understanding the use of the Four Roles of the Literate Learner
- knowing and utilizing the media triangle for understanding and creating media texts
- developing an understanding of the relationship between reading/ viewing and writing/ creating texts (for example, deconstructing texts before constructing texts)
- developing a repertoire of oral language strategies to support students in engaging in academic conversations and active listening.

G. Reflecting, Documenting and Interpreting Learning

- critically exploring fair, equitable, transparent, valid, reliable assessment and evaluation methods that honour the dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development of all students
- critically exploring and integrating assessment, evaluation and reporting practices that align with the principles and processes of Ontario's curriculum, frameworks and policy documents
- using assessment for the following three purposes: to provide feedback to students and to adjust instruction (assessment for learning); to develop students' capacity to be independent, autonomous learners (assessment as learning); to make judgements about the quality of student learning (assessment of learning)
- critically exploring the use of data as well as current assessment data to reflect on how the students are progressing and the effectiveness of the learning strategies used
- critically exploring the use of baseline data as well as current assessment data to reflect on how the students are progressing and the effectiveness of the learning strategies used
- exploring the use of differentiated assessment tools (for example, checklists, rubrics, anecdotal notes etc.) to support the language learning of all students
- identifying learning goals and co-creating success criteria in order to guide, enhance, and empower students to take ownership of their learning of language.

H. Shared Responsibility for Learning

- critically exploring and integrating a variety of effective communication and engagement strategies for authentic collaboration with parents/guardians, school/board personnel and community agencies
- critically exploring strategies and opportunities for professional collaboration that supports student learning and well-being
- critically exploring and addressing biases, discrimination and systemic barriers in order to support student learning, well-being and inclusion
- fostering and sustaining a positive, inclusive educational culture in which all perspectives are encouraged, valued and heard
- understanding and respecting the importance of shared responsibility and partnership as conveyed in the standards and the Foundations of Professional Practice critically exploring professional collaboration within interdisciplinary teams to support student learning, self-advocacy and transitions.

I. Research, Professional Learning and the Scholarship of Pedagogy

- critically exploring past, present and evolving practices in Language, Grades 7&8
- critically exploring professional practice through ongoing inquiry into theory and pedagogy/andragogy
- engaging in professional learning through research, scholarship and leadership
- integrating research and the scholarship of pedagogy/andragogy into teaching practice
- collaborating in research and the scholarship of pedagogy/andragogy
- critically exploring knowledge-creation and mobilization as professional practice.

5. Instructional Practice in the Additional Qualification Course: Language, Grades 7 and 8

Candidates will collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences, and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course.

In the implementation of this Additional Qualification course, instructors use strategies that are relevant, meaningful and practical in providing candidates with learning experiences about instruction, pedagogy and assessment and evaluation. These include but are not limited to: experiential learning, small group interaction; action research; presentations; independent inquiry; problem solving; collaborative learning and direct instruction.

Instructors model the Ethical Standards of the Teaching Profession and the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession, honour the principles of adult learning, recognize candidates' experience and prior learning and respond to individual needs. Important to the course are opportunities for candidates to create support networks and receive feedback from colleagues and instructors and share the products of their learning with others. Opportunities for professional reading, reflection, dialogue and expression are also integral parts of the course.

Instructors model effective instructional and assessment strategies that can be replicated or adapted in a variety of classroom settings.

Experiential Learning

Candidates will be provided with opportunities to engage in experiential learning related to key concepts and aspects of Language, Grades 7 and 8 as collaboratively determined by both the instructor and course candidates. The intent of the experiential learning opportunities is to support the application and integration of practice and theory within the authentic context of teaching and learning. Candidates will also engage in critical reflection and analysis of their engagement in experiential learning opportunities related to Language, Grades 7 and 8. The professional judgment, knowledge and pedagogy of candidates will be enhanced and refined through experiential learning and inquiry.

The College's standards resources help to support experiential learning through various forms of professional inquiry.

6. Assessment and Evaluation of Candidates

At the beginning of the course, candidates will collaboratively develop with course instructors the specific learning inquiries, learning experiences, and forms of assessment and evaluation that will be used throughout the course. Instructors will provide opportunities for regular feedback regarding candidates' progress throughout the course.

A balanced approach to candidate assessment and evaluation is used. It includes the combination of candidate self and peer assessment, as well as instructor evaluation. The assessment and evaluation strategies reflect effective, collaborative and inquiry-based practices. A variety of assessment approaches will be used that enable candidates to convey their learning related to course inquiries. The course provides opportunities for both formative and summative assessment and evaluation.

Central to candidates enrolled in Additional Qualification courses is the opportunity to be engaged in relevant and meaningful inquiries. Assignments, artefacts and projects enable candidates to make connections between theory and practice. At the same time, assignments must allow candidates flexibility, choice and individual inquiry opportunities.

Part of the evaluation process may include a major independent project or action research component over the duration of the course. This project is an opportunity for candidates to illustrate a high level of professional knowledge, communication skills, pedagogy, ethical practices and instructional leadership. Similarly, if a portfolio assignment is used it will also include reflections and analysis of a candidate's learning over time.

A final culminating experience in the course is recommended. This experience may take the form of a written assessment, a research paper, a performance, an inquiry project or a product that is original, meaningful and practical.

The following list of assessment strategies which are reflective of experiential learning is not exhaustive; it is intended to serve as a guide only.

- a) Performance assessment: designing a sample unit which includes a culminating activity and appropriate assessment and evaluation tools, incorporates a variety of technologies and resources relevant to the study of

Language, Grades 7 and 8, and is based on Ministry of Education expectations

- b) Written assignment: reflecting critically on issues arising from articles, publications, research and/or other resources related to the teaching or practice to Language, Grades 7 and 8
- c) Presentation: developing a digital story, presenting an issue related to the teaching and learning related to Language, Grades 7 and 8
- d) Portfolio: creating a portfolio of practical resources, artefacts, photographs and recording critical reflections for one or several components related to Language, Grades 7 and 8
- e) Action research: engaging in action research by reflecting and acting upon a specific inquiry into teaching practice related to Language, Grades 7 and 8
- f) Independent project: addressing any aspect of the course that is approved by the instructor
- g) Instructional resource: developing a meaningful resource that will support instruction and pedagogy related to the teaching and learning of Language, Grades 7 and 8
- h) Reflective writing: reflecting on professional practice through journal-writing, or writing a case or vignette that will support instruction and pedagogy related to the teaching and learning of Language, Grades 7 and 8
- i) Case inquiry: writing or exploring a case related to collaboration and shared partnerships, with parents, colleagues, and community organizations
- j) IEP development: collaboratively develop an IEP related to Language, Grades 7 and 8 with the family, student and school team
- k) Facilitating a Learning Experience: developing and implementing an engaging learning experience that reflects differentiated instruction, universal design and the tiered approach.

Appendix 1

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession represent a vision of professional practice. At the heart of a strong and effective teaching profession is a commitment to students and their learning. Members of the Ontario College of Teachers, in their position of trust, demonstrate responsibility in their relationships with students, parents, guardians, colleagues, educational partners, other professionals, the environment and the public.

The Purposes of the Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire members to reflect and uphold the honour and dignity of the teaching profession
- to identify the ethical responsibilities and commitments in the teaching profession
- to guide ethical decisions and actions in the teaching profession
- to promote public trust and confidence in the teaching profession.

The Ethical Standards for the Teaching Profession are:

Care

The ethical standard of Care includes compassion, acceptance, interest and insight for developing students' potential. Members express their commitment to students' well-being and learning through positive influence, professional judgment and empathy in practice.

Respect

Intrinsic to the ethical standard of Respect are trust and fair-mindedness. Members honour human dignity, emotional wellness and cognitive development. In their professional practice, they model respect for spiritual and cultural values, social justice, confidentiality, freedom, democracy and the environment.

Trust

The ethical standard of Trust embodies fairness, openness and honesty. Members' professional relationships with students, colleagues, parents, guardians and the public are based on trust.

Integrity

Honesty, reliability and moral action are embodied in the ethical standard of Integrity. Continual reflection assists members in exercising integrity in their professional commitments and responsibilities.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession provide a framework of principles that describes the knowledge, skills, and values inherent in Ontario's teaching profession. These standards articulate the goals and aspirations of the profession. These standards convey a collective vision of professionalism that guides the daily practices of members of the Ontario College of Teachers.

The Purposes of the Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

- to inspire a shared vision for the teaching profession
- to identify the values, knowledge and skills that are distinctive to the teaching profession
- to guide the professional judgment and actions of the teaching profession
- to promote a common language that fosters an understanding of what it means to be a member of the teaching profession.

The Standards of Practice for the Teaching Profession are:

Commitment to Students and Student Learning

Members are dedicated in their care and commitment to students. They treat students equitably and with respect and are sensitive to factors that influence individual student learning. Members facilitate the development of students as contributing citizens of Canadian society.

Professional Knowledge

Members strive to be current in their professional knowledge and recognize its relationship to practice. They understand and reflect on student development, learning theory, pedagogy, curriculum, ethics, educational research and related policies and legislation to inform professional judgment in practice.

Professional Practice

Members apply professional knowledge and experience to promote student learning. They use appropriate pedagogy, assessment and evaluation, resources and technology in planning for and responding to the needs of individual students and learning communities. Members refine their professional practice through ongoing inquiry, dialogue and reflection.

Leadership in Learning Communities

Members promote and participate in the creation of collaborative, safe and supportive learning communities. They recognize their shared responsibilities and their leadership roles in order to facilitate student success. Members maintain and uphold the principles of the ethical standards in these learning communities.

Ongoing Professional Learning

Members recognize that a commitment to ongoing professional learning is integral to effective practice and to student learning. Professional practice and self-directed learning are informed by experience, research, collaboration and knowledge.