Your Library

The Margaret Wilson Library provides services to all College members—whether you visit us in person in downtown Toronto or live in Moosonee and request materials online.

The library has more than 12,000 education-related resources in English and French including ebooks and access to full-text research databases.

You can access materials, on site or online, free of charge.

To learn more, visit www.oct.ca/members/library.

What's your Interest?

The Margaret Wilson Library has extensive French and English, print and electronic materials on classroom management, leadership, literacy, social studies, outdoor education, special education and mentoring—all these topics and many more.

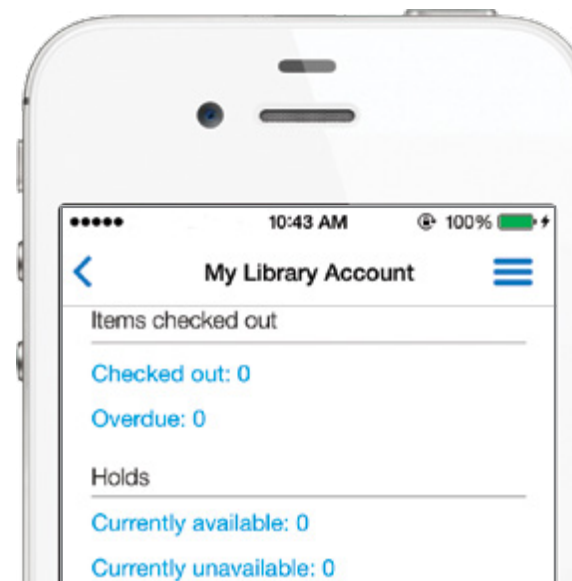

We're here to support your professional development. You can access our full range of services on mobile and through our website 24 hours a day seven days a week.

You can search our online catalogue and request books and DVDs. They'll be mailed to your home or school address—free of charge.

You can access thousands of full-text journal articles through research databases on EBSCOhost.
