Subject: Phased-out Schedule D Qualifications

Further to our memo of April 23, 2008 regarding the implementation of changes to Regulation 184/97, Teachers' Qualifications, the College understands that there may be some individuals who were enrolled prior to August 31, 2008 in the Schedule D, part 1 qualifications (see list below) that are being discontinued and who:

- were not certified until after August 31, 2008 or
- did not complete the qualification until after August 31, 2008
- have not yet completed the qualification.

This memo is to advise you that the College will now accept recommendations for individuals in the above situations through to August 31, 2012. As noted in our memorandum of April 23, 2008, the College will continue to accept recommendations for Part II and Specialist courses until August 31, 2012.

Please continue to submit recommendations for this qualification through FacultyPlus using the codes below. When submitting these recommendations, please use the actual date of completion for the recommendation date.
