Subject: Report of the Registration Appeals Committee

Committee Meeting and Panel Dates

Since our last report to Council, the Registration Appeals Committee met on September 18, September 25, October 16 and October 22, 2020.

Summary of Discussions

The committee met to consider a total of five cases. Decisions were upheld in four cases whereas one decision was modified.

Overview of Case:

Registrar's decision upheld (terms, conditions or limitations) The Appellant did not establish that they satisfied the professional registration requirements for certification. The Committee found that the Appellant's application remained incomplete on August 31, 2015.	1
Registrar's decision upheld (terms, conditions or limitations) The Appellant did not establish that they satisfied the professional registration requirements for certification. The Appellant did not meet the condition on their certificate of qualification and registration.	1
Registrar's decision upheld (denial) The Appellant did not establish that they satisfied the professional registration requirements for certification. The Bachelor of Education program completed by the Appellant was unrecognized at the time it was completed.	1
La décision du registraire est maintenue (refus) Le comité constate que le programme de formation à l'enseignement suivi par l'appelant ne répond pas aux exigences minimums.	1
Registrar's decision modified (terms, conditions or limitations) The Committee found that the Appellant had, in-part, demonstrated that they met the professional registration requirement for certification. The Committee saw fit to modify the decision of the Registrar and remove one of the conditions on the Appellant's certificate.	1

The committee also considered and approved two requests for extensions of time to submit and consider additional documentation.

The Policy Unit presented to the Quality Assurance Committee on October 22, 2020 on behalf of the Registration Appeals Committee.
